Mummers – Workshop / Lecture - Ceardlann / léacht faoi Mummers.

Thursday 25th August – Family events

Hands-on Workshop 2.00 – 4.00pm

Evening Lecture 7.00 – 8.00pm

Mummers or Cleamairí in Irish are an age-old Irish custom. At Christmas / St. Stephen's Day they were called "Wren Boys", on Saint Brigid's Day the "Biddy Boys" made an appearance. "May Boys" came out for May Day, "Guisers" appeared on Halloween and finally "Straw Boys" brought merriment to weddings throughout the year.

Pádraig Óg Ó Ruairc, a native of Clare now resident in Cork, who has taken part in these festivities for decades invites you to come to the library and show you how to make the traditional costumes used by mummers.

Is nós ársa i gcultúr na hÉireann iad na Cleamairí nó Mummers mar a tugadh orthu i mBéarla.
